A Rich Harvest.

It costs no more to sow good seeds than it does to sow old and worthless stock. How foolish is the person who fails to get the best to start with. No doubt you have often thought of this, when your garden has not done very well.

Will you jog along in the same old way this year, or use a little forethought and send to James Vick's Sons, Rochester, N. Y., for their Catalogue which contains a list of all that's new and good?

Their seeds are always reliable—sure to grow and never disappoint. Send 10 cents for Catalogue and deduct this amount from first order. Really costs nothing.

Vick's Floral Guide 1897.

For nearly half a century this Catalogue of Flower and Vegetable Seeds, Plants, Bulbs, Roses, Grasses, Potatoes, etc., has come as regularly as spring time. Here it is again to remind us that it is time to think about our gardens. This issue contains half a dozen full page half-tone illustrations of Roses, Asters, Gold Flowers, Carnations and Tomatoes.

It seems full of the necessary information for either amateur or professional. Send 15 cents to James Vick's Sons, Rochester, N. Y., for a packet of either Vick's Branching Asters, New Japan Morning Glory or extra choice Pansy and a copy of Vick's Floral Guide. If you state where you saw this notice you will receive a package of flower seeds free.

Lands in Central Wisconsin

Are now as desirable as any in the market. The lands particularly in the central and northern part of Wisconsin, are being rapidly taken up by actual settlers.

The most salable are the timber and meadow lands now ranging in price from $6.00 to $12.00 per acre. A few months hence their value will be greatly increased.

For a home or for investment, no luckier chance in the West has ever before been offered. Now is the time to invest. No better farming land exists anywhere. No greater results can be obtained anywhere.

Schools and churches abound everywhere. Nearby markets for all farm products. Wisconsin is one of the banner states of the West.

The little daughter of Mr. Fred Webber, Holland, Mass., had a very bad cold and cough which he had not been able to cure with anything. I gave him a 25 cent bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, says W. P. Holden, merchant and postmaster at West Brimfield, and the next time I saw him he said it worked like a charm. This remedy is intended especially for acute throat and lung disease such as colds, croup and whooping cough, and it is famous for its cures. There is no danger in giving it to children for it contains nothing injurious. For sale by R. C. Hardwick Druggist.

Good Morning.

What a bad night. Worried, can't sleep, feel all tired out. Hard mental work takes away the digestive power and the liver becomes languid; or, perhaps you have overstepped the bounds of moderation. Been eating or drinking too much? In order to promote refreshing sleep after business is over, take a dose of Carlstedt's German Liver Syrup. It steadies the nerves by quietly stimulating the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels to action thus relieving the brain. It will make you feel alright in the morning. For sale by all druggists. L. L. Be Beautiful.

If your blood is bad, your face shows it. It is nature warning you that the condition of the blood needs attention before more serious disease sets in. Beauty is blood deep. When you see pimples and liver spots on your face, go at once and secure a bottle of Carlstedt's German Liver Medicines as they will purify the blood, clear the complexion and bring the rosy blush of health to the faded face and take away the liver spots and pimples. For sale by all druggists. L. L. Elgin special agent Hopkinsville, Ky.

The Most Fatal Disease.

It is not generally known that more adults die with Kidney trouble than any other disease. When the first symptoms of this disease appear no time should be lost in taking Foley's Kidney Cure which is guaranteed or money refunded. For sale by C. K. Wyly, Druggist.

Money rates are harder in London because of the Cretan troubles.

Most druggist sell you what you ask for. Some will ask you to take something which they claim is "just as good." Sometime a little more profit induces them to do this. Dr. Bell's Pine Tar Honey is the best cough, cold and grip cure. After you try it once you will like it too well to accept any substitute.

PLAYING A LAST GAME.

The Patent Farm Gate Man Played Against Time.

One winter's day a patent farm gate man arrived in Thomasville and almost the first man he ran across was Uncle Brill, as everybody called him. Uncle Brill was the champion checker player of that country, and he had downed every man, stranger or citizen, who came along. There was something about this stranger which made Uncle Brill suspect that he was a good player. So he doffed his hat and said:

"I beg your pardon, but mebbe you play a game of checkers now and then to pass away the time?"

"Mebbe I do, when I kin find anybody as knows the noble game," replied the stranger.

"Didn't you ever hear of Uncle Brill, of this town?"

"No, I never did. Is he a jumper, or what?"

"His best holt is checkers, sir. He hasn't lost a game in the last 20 years."

"Mebbe you might be the critter yourself?" queried the stranger as he looked the old man over.

"Mebbe I are. Yes, suh, that's my name, though I'm not generally alluded to as a 'critter.'"

"And you know how to play checkers?"

"I reckon I dew."

"That's good. I've got a week off, and I'm glad to find somebody to amuse me. Come to the tavern after supper."

When Uncle Brill left home that evening he told his wife he might be gone two hours. The stranger was waiting for him, a lot of idlers had gathered and the game began at once. After two or three moves had been made each player saw that he had an old hand to deal with and began to hedge. There was no hurry about playing. The stranger lay back in his chair and told about the celebrated games he had played with celebrated people, and Uncle Brill followed suit, and when midnight came only four or five moves had been made. As the spectators all departed, the man said to Uncle Brill:

"Mebbe your wife will be anxious about you, and mebbe you want to go home and give this game to me?"

"Mebbe I sot down here to sot fur three days if necessary," replied the old man, and the game went on.

The pair were left alone in the barroom, and at daylight neither of them had a king. At ten o'clock in the forenoon the stranger got the first one. Neither had stopped for breakfast, but after every move the stranger would lie back and tell a story which consumed the next hour. At noon Uncle Brill got a king, but night had come before each had a pair. The game went right on through the evening up to midnight, right on into another day, and both were as watchful and vigilant as ever. At noon word was brought to Uncle Brill that his cow had died, but he would not abandon the game. At night he got word that his old woman was very sick, but he still stuck. At midnight when they were left alone again, the stranger said:

"Old man, you'd better give it up and go home. It'll be agin your reputation, of course, but you'll hev to make the best of it."

"I've sot out to sot here till I win this game or die!" was the reply, and the game went on.

An hour after daylight the first corners found Uncle Brill bending over the checker board, with his hand on a king as if preparing for a move. The stranger was leaning back in his chair and telling a story of how he once played a game which lasted seven straight days. The visitors came and spoke to the old champion, but he made no answer. Then they laid a hand on his shoulder and found that he was dead!

"Dead, eh?" queried the patent gate man. "Well, I've been wondering for the last hour why he didn't move his king, but there was no hurry about it—no hurry. I figured that it would take three days more to game the game, and I'd hev to beat him, for sure!"—Philadelphia Press.

Glass Houses.

Glass houses of a very substantial kind can now be built. Silesian glassmakers are turning out glass bricks for all sorts of building purposes, claiming for them such advantages as variety of shape, free transmission of light, strength, cheapness and general adaptability. When complete diffusion of light is needed, as in factories, conservatories, courtyards, etc., they are especially suitable.

—In the Same Class.—"I'm a plain, blunt man, Margaret, and can frame no honeyed speeches. Will you marry me?" "I'm a little on the plain, blunt order myself. No!"—Detroit Free Press.

"TIS LOVE THAT MAKES THE WORLD GO 'ROUND."

Some people think money is a greater power than love. Oh! What a mistake! See how the great money kings are controlled by the little boy Cupid! See how the great soldiers and men of power are twisted around his little fingers!

A woman's most precious possession is the capacity for awakening pure and noble love. More potent than wit or intellect is the womanly capacity for happy wifehood and motherhood.

A woman who is weak or diseased in the special organism of her sex is deprived of the power and prestige which naturally belong to her. Such troubles are not a necessity. Perfect health and strength of the feminine organism is insured by proper care and the aids afforded by enlightened medical science. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures all weaknesses and diseases of woman's special organism.

For nearly 30 years Dr. Pierce has been chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y. No other physician has had a more extensive practice or greater success in the treatment of women's diseases. No other such perfect and scientific remedy for these ailments has ever been devised. It has restored health, strength and womanly power to tens of thousands of women.

Women who would understand their own powers and possibilities should read Doctor Pierce's thousand-page illustrated book, "The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser." It is the most interesting and enlightening book of the kind ever published. A paper-bound copy will be sent absolutely free to any one sending 21 cent stamps to pay the cost of mailing only. Address, World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y. For a handsome cloth-bound copy send 31 stamps.

Throw Away His Cane.

Mr. D. Wiley, ex postmaster, Black Creek, N. Y., was badly afflicted with rheumatism that he was only able to hobble around with canes, and even then it caused him great pain. After using Chamberlain's Pain Balm he was so much improved that he threw away his canes. He says this balm did him more good than all other medicines and treatment put together. Cured After Suffering 15 Years.

Mr. E. B. Hackett a prominent dry goods merchant of Morganfield, Ky., suffered for years with constipation and indigestion and was prevailed on by a traveling man to use Carlstedt's German Liver Powder saying it had done him great good. He gave it a trial and he began to feel better after the first dose. After using it, Mr. Hackett who was troubled with piles, was surprised to find himself cured of this most dreaded of all afflictions. He is now a well man and does not have to use any medicine. It cures and you do not become a slave to the medicine. If you are effected in this manner, give it a trial as it will only cost you 25cts, and should it not prove as we say, the druggist will refund to you your money. For sale by all druggists. L. L. Elgin special agent Hopkinsville, Ky.

Mrs. J. S. Cain and Mrs. Mary Brown were struck by a horse and slightly injured.

Dr. Bell's Pine Tar Honey is an important addition to the list of the world's most valuable medicines. Harmless in its nature, yet almost infallible in its action, it is undoubtedly the most efficacious means known to day of curing coughs, colds and kindred diseases.

Gov. Atkinson, of Georgia, is in trouble with the Southwestern Tariff Association.

The old story of Prometheus is a parable. Prometheus was on terms of intimacy of gods. From them he stole fire and gave it to men. For this sin he was bound to the rocks of Mount Caucasus, and vultures were set upon him. They only ate his liver. This grew again as fast as it was pecked away. Are his sufferings to be imagined?

Take a modern interpretation of the parable. There is no cooking without fire. In cooking and eating the mischievous. The stomach is overtasked, the bowels become clogged, they cannot dispose of the food that is given them. The impurities back up on the liver. Then comes the vultures—the torments of a diseased liver. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is more than equal to the vultures of dyspepsia and its kindred diseases. There is no more need of suffering from dyspepsia than there is of hanging one's self. Sold by all medicine dealers the world over.
